

MAY/JUNE 2024

KBB

Official Publication of NKBA | KBIS

Modern & Moody Kitchen

Closeup on
Sinks & Faucets

Illuminating
Lighting Ideas

WHAT'S HOT IN Bath Surfaces

1

2

3

4

5

6

1

From CAESARSTONE, Celestial Sky is part of the Ooak Quartz Collection, which explores the language of veining. From delicate tracing to bold streaks, metallic highlights are used to create new looks while acknowledging the surface's material roots. caesarstoneus.com
Photo credit: Caesarstone

2

More art than lumber, live edge wooden countertops from GROTHOUSE bring nature into the bath. Sourced locally from trees that have fallen or been removed from sites due to old age, slabs are cured for up to five years to ensure stability. glumber.com
Photo credit: Jared Kuzia

3

Windsor Brass from CAMBRIA is a high-gloss quartz surface with chocolate brown streams that converge along a white backdrop. Its translucence and movement are punctuated by hints of brilliant brass. cambriausa.com
Photo credit: Cambria

4

From MAGBAN, the Magblanc quartzite features a white background and fine mineral lines that give it a distinctive aesthetic. Composed of 99% quartz and 1% sericite, it is a versatile and durable material. magban.com.br
Photo credit: Magban and Centrorochas – It's Natural Brazilian Natural Stone

5

New to the FORMICA 180fx Collection, the cool white field of Fractured Marble is punctuated with true-to-scale bold veining in soft black and brown, creating architectural contrast, depth and dimension. formica.com
Photo credit: Formica

6

ANN SACKS introduces Verde Tia, a dimensional honed marble in shades of jade. Available in field tile and trim as well as two mosaics, its golden undertones set the stone apart from mainstream blue-based greens. The inventoried line is rated for vertical applications. annsacks.com
Photo credit: Ann Sacks